

Yanni Huang Bio

Yanni Huang is a highly skilled educator and accomplished musician from China. She commenced her piano studies at the age of four and began learning the flute at ten. Holding a Master of Teaching, Yanni has attained the Guangdong China Piano Society Piano Level 10, equivalent to AMEB Grade 8.

Her musical career includes performing as a flutist with the Guangzhou Little Angels Symphony Orchestra. Currently, she is a Chinese language instructor and piano accompanist at Haileybury Rendall School, where she combines her pedagogical expertise with her musical proficiency.